MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

DD/S&T 150-72

SUBJECT: Loan of CIA Employees to Other Government Agencies for Activities Within the United States

1. The Director was advised of the facts behind an allegation that CIA had two audio surveillance officers at the Democratic National Convention in 1968. In fact, two Office of Security counter-audio technicians had been loaned to the Secret Service to assist the Secret Service function of protecting candidates. CIA had no contact with the officers on this duty, and their activities were completely under Secret Service direction.

2. Because of the possibilities for misunderstanding of such situations, the Director instructed that he wishes personally to be informed of any cases in which CIA personnel are loaned to other agencies for activities within the United States. This would include loans to the Secret Service and other similar agencies from such sources as the Office of Security, TSD, etc.
